REFER A FIREND ELIGIBILITY

To maintain eligibility in the Refer a Friend program and to receive the reduced monthly rate all participants must abide by the following guidelines:

- Utilize the monthly credit card/bank draft payment options for their membership and remain in good standing
- All buddies must be referred through YMCA website
- Referring members are eligible for ONE 20% discount per membership and discount does not apply to other services or programs
- Buddies must join at Green County Family YMCA in person
- To be referred cannot have been member within last 3 months

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What membership type can I refer?

A: Any standard monthly drafted membership type is eligible

Q: What happens if my buddy's membership is cancelled?

A: You will have a 30-day window to recruit a new buddy or have your buddy reinstate to maintain your Refer a Friend rate. If you are unable to confirm a new buddy within that time frame, your monthly rate will return to your original membership rate.

Q: What if I have an annual membership?

A: To benefit under the Better Together rate, both members will need to be on monthly draft – annual membership will need to convert to monthly draft to qualify for the discount- once converted 20% discount will go into effect on first draft date.

Q: What about new members? Can they also take advantage of this program?

A: New members may refer another new member after they have been a member for 30 days or complete a successful first monthly draft.

Q: Can a current member terminate and rejoin with another current member under the Refer a Friend program?

A: Qualifying new members under the Better Together program must have been inactive for at least 3 months.

Q: Can all of my family refer buddies?

A: Yes! However, the Refer a Friend program allows a max of 20% off.

Q: If I am a current member and I have a buddy that is a current member of the Y, can they recruit me as their buddy?

A: No, current members cannot recruit other current members to be buddies. You will need to refer someone who is not a member in order to be eligible for the Refer a Friend program.

Q: When will my referred member rate go into effect?

A: As a current member, your Refer a Friend rate will take effect on the next available drafting cycle after your buddy joins the Y. The Refer a Friend rate will go into effect for the New Member immediately.

Q: If I invite multiple friends, do I receive additional rate reductions for each friend that joins?

A: No. Members will be eligible to receive one reduced rate per membership, regardless of how many of their buddies join. Each of the friends you refer will be eligible for the Refer a Friend rate. Having multiple buddies join will give you assurance to remain in the program in the event your 1st buddy cancels.

Q: If I currently have a membership that offers more of a discount to me than the Refer a Friend program, can I still invite a buddy and let them receive the Refer a Friend rate?

A: Yes. As a Y qualifying member, you will be able to refer your buddies to join and they will receive the Refer a Friend rate as long as they elect monthly draft.

Q: What if someone who pays the full standard rate refers someone who qualifies for and chooses an alternative (not Refer a Friend) discounted membership?

A: The referring (current) member will receive the Refer a Friend savings, their buddy would receive the alternative discount of their choice.

Q: I am currently receiving financial assistance. Can I refer a friend to this program?

A: Yes. Should your referral decide to join they will receive the Refer a Friend rate for the membership category they select. Your membership will remain at your standard scholarship rate or be reduced to the Refer a Friend rate for your current membership type, whichever is less.

Q: Can my referral come from a member of another YMCA Association?

A: No, as the Refer a Friend program is unique to the Green County Family YMCA, qualifying referrals must come from an active Green County Family YMCA member.

Q: If the standard rate of membership changes, how will this impact my monthly rate?

A: The Refer a Friend rate is based 20% off the standard rate. If the standard rate changes, the 20% off rate will adjust according to the new standard rate.

Q: Does the 20% discount apply to prorated dues?

A: Yes, the 20% discount applies to full standard monthly dues once approved for the Refer a Friend program.

Q: Does the 20% discount apply to programs and membership add-ons?

A: No, the 20% discount is only applied to membership dues.

Q: If I need more information, who do I call?

A: Please call out Welcome Center desk at 608-325-2003 or email dthomas@greencountyyymca.org.
